That is the Question. Sneak Preview of Chapter Six: Building the Perfect Relationship Healthy relationships are life s greatest treasure; they are certainly life s greatest challenge. They are only found between people who are comfortable with and within their own selves, people who do not need to steal power from another by invading another s boundaries. Between healthy people in healthy relationships boundaries are never meshed, overlapped or subsumed, but remain comfortably crisp and distinct allowing each to function separate and independent; each individual maximizing their own capabilities, taking responsibility for their own actions and solving their own individual problems. The healthy person has no need to dominate, and no desire to be subservient. --The Mahdi Prophecy, by Michael Green, MD Many years ago Bonnie...
