Case Of Betto Douglas, A St. Kitt s Slave - United States - Slave Population Of West Indies. We have before us the official details, (No. 187 of 1st May, 1827, ) as recently printed by order of the House of Commons, of a case from the Island of St. Kitt s, which affords some striking illustrations of the spirit and influence of slavery - not merely as it prompts the master to acts of cruelty and oppression, but as it operates to subvert and vitiate the best sympathies of our nature, to such an extent as to render slaveholders, generally speaking, unfit to discharge the functions of legislation or of judicature towards the enslaved population. The particulars of the present case are as follow: - Betto Douglas is a Mulatto slave, about fifty-two years of age, belonging to the Earl of Romney. Some years previous to the present transactions she had requested Mr. Goldfrap, one of...
