Such, doubtless, was his intention; for the next moment the snap of the lock Was tard, but the piece did not go off; and with a D--n the thing! I can do without it, it was cast upon the ground, and the same voice, addressing: he now stationary personage, with whom th speaker had come along side, demanded to know who he was. My name is Buttermaa, was the rwply. Good! cried the other; so youre one of us; and now, arter being pursued yourself, you can join in pursuit. Whos this fellow ahead Dont know--only I know he belongs to the villainous gang of horse-thieves. Good agin! cried Jake, who by this time was considerably past the other, and still running hard. I told em so--I knowed it--and Ill give him thunder yit!--whoop! hurray! Who are you cried Butterman. Im Jake Wilden. Is it possible, and I not know you! And who are those behind Dad, Bob, and two other friends, answered Jake, who by this time was too far beyond the other to permit of any further conversation. And I have all this time been running away from my friends, soliloquised Butterman-- thinking they, were enemies! O, what an ass! But I am sure they fired upon me, and gave chase, when I run that fellow in among them. I do not understand it; but...
