CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 76 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in.This work has been prepared for young people driven to spiritual matters by life and death struggling. It should be of interest to others who feel that spiritually they do not have enough to be alive meaningfully. The New Testament book of John, Pauls authenticated letters and Spinozas works have much to reveal to serious readers. Their messages of discerning and engaging God enable and empower people who earnestly and deeply pursue personal salvation and holiness. The booklet promises revealing insight to the reading and study of John, Paul and Spinoza, but it may not be for everyone it is not light reading. The central message in the book of John, the authenticated letters of Paul and the work of Spinoza is that what is important about personal existing and living is to personally be in God of and from God. Spinoza closed his last and most important work the Ethic by writing: . . . the wise man being conscious by a certain eternal necessity of himself, of God, and of things, never ceases to be, and always enjoys true peace of soul. If the way which, as I have shown, leads hither seems very difficult it can never the less be found if salvation lay ready to hand and could be discovered, without great labour, how could it possible that that it should be neglected by almost everybody But all noble things are as difficult as they are rare. (Ethic, Pt5Prop42Sch.) Paul did not neglect his personal salvation. Through difficult pursuit, he discovered that eternal necessity of himself, of God and of things. In his letter to the Galatians, Paul writes that he spent 17 mature years...
