

Mikey Me: A Journey of Faith Through Autism (Paperback)

By A E Vanaguntla

Esther Amith Vanaguntla, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . For those who have never heard of, nor understand Autism, this easy-to-read personal journey will tug at your emotions; open your eyes and ears to the struggles that families looking after children with disabilities may face. Dr Edwin Yip He taught me a lot through his courage to persevere with communication, and in using his own creative ways of trying to get his message across - especially in the early days, when it was hard for him to understand how language works. He is an amazing young man, and he has been very blessed to have such loving and supportive parents to guide him through the joys and challenges of life. Meryl Brown, Speech Language Therapist The length of the book, the quality of the people in the heart of the story, and the style of writing make it an irresistible read that will be a source of hope and blessing to people all over the world. Rev Andrew Marshall I asked, God, why me? I imagined that I got a call from the DP saying, It was a mistake. There s...
