Seven Stories Press,U.S. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Propaganda Inc: Selling America's Culture to the World (3rd New edition), Nancy Snow, "Nancy Snow pulls the curtain on the US Information Agency and shows it to be just another front for corporate America."--Jim Hightower, author of There's Nothing in the Middle of the Road but Yellow Stripes and Dead Armadillos "In [these pages], Nancy Snow shows herself to be a discerning, fair-minded investigator, a skilled writer and researcher, and a socially conscious citizen. No wonder she found herself unable to function within the U.S. propaganda machine."--Michael Parenti An eye-opening overview of American cultural policy fully updated through the end of the Bush presidency, Propaganda, Inc. reveals how the United States Information Agency became a bureaucracy deeply distrustful of dissent, and one-way in its promotion of American corporate interests overseas. Nancy Snow spent two years inside the Agency, and here provides an insider's account of its crooked relationship to corporate interests and war. Simply a must-read for those concerned with American propaganda and the war on terror. A former employee of the United States Information Agency until its demise in 1999, scholar Nancy Snow is now a highly sought-after commentator on American propaganda. She is an associate professor of Public Diplomacy in the Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University.
