Reviews

The publication is simple in go through preferable to fully grasp. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Publishers Place. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, A Light That Splits the Dark: The Solitude Papers II (illustrated edition), Paul E Keenan, In early 2002 Publishers Place issued its second collection of high-school writing out of solitude. This slender volume packages prose and some poetry from five West Virginia high schools, written under guidelines provided by John Patrick Grace and in the spirit of an earlier collection titled River Fog Rising. It is edited by Paul Elmo Keenan and also features photographs by Mark S. Phillips, associate director of Publishers Place. Both collections exemplify an innovative approach to composition for students, based on setting a mood of deep introspection and encouraging an unself-conscious "taking notes on one's thoughts." Jan Dickinson, Director of Communications of the West Virginia Development Office, calls this book "a stirring collection of reflections by West Virginia high-school students contemplating their place in the world."
