The Quality of Citizenship Education in Harare

By Oswald Namasasu

SPS Dez 2013, 2013. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 220x150x19 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - This book reveals that the intended curriculum as represented by Zimbabwe's official social studies syllabus of 1982 has considerable potential for citizenship education. While the syllabus requires updating to incorporate post-1980 developments, it does not require a complete overhaul for it to promote citizenship education. An in-depth evaluation of the social studies curriculum at primary school in Harare leads to the conclusion that the problem is largely at implementation level. Distortion first occurs during textbook writing, official approval and publishing. This is then amplified at school and classroom level because of the dominance of the textbook as a teaching aid and the failure to make significant links to the actual environments and contexts in which pupils live. An examination-driven education system helps perpetuate a low quality citizenship curriculum largely characterized by rote learning and limited practical citizenship-oriented activities. The pupils themselves, when given the opportunity, are very keen on citizenship education. The ethos and climate of the school also have an important input into how young children experience citizenship education. 316 pp. Englisch.

Reviews

A really amazing ebook with lucid and perfect answers. It is really simplistic but excitement in the 50 % in the publication. I am just happy to explain how this is actually the best pdf i actually have study during my individual daily life and may be he greatest ebook for possibly.

The most effective publication i at any time read. We have study and i am sure that i will likely to read yet again once again in the foreseeable future. You will not truly feel monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you request me).
