The Illusion When I placed my pen to paper to write this inspiring book, the ultimate aim was to define the actual and true meaning of greatness. In the minds of some people greatness has an abstract and obscene meaning that indicates the accumulation and the sufficiency of having and holding money. However, such disparaging definition of greatness is in itself an illusion of the mind. What then is greatness? Greatness is the progressive achievement of what you were created to fulfill, it is the accomplishment of your divine purpose and assignment. Greatness is the actualization of a resolute and a selfless life dedicated to empowering others. In other words, greatness is the attainment of the purity of purposeful assignment. In my course of study, I discovered that each and every individual has the capacity to be great when such a person refrains himself from the pursuit and accumulation of mundane possessions. Greatness clings to anyone who utilizes what he has to make the world a better place. Such a person is propelled by the passion to help others achieve their worth in life. Therefore, greatness is the kind of life we live and not the kind of things we get. Greatness shows to us that life is a journey, the kind of journey that takes us along diverse routes and what we truly desire is to reach that expected destination where we would find the greatest joy and happiness. Conversely, what some people ignore is the truth that the attainment of greatness or purposeful assignment is governed by certain principles, which lead to the achievement of peace, wealth and greatness. The principles of greatness are universal in their...
