House Guests, House Pests: A Natural History of Animals in the Home

By Richard Jones

Bloomsbury Publishing PLC. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, House Guests, House Pests: A Natural History of Animals in the Home, Richard Jones, Today we live in snug, well-furnished houses surrounded by the trappings of a civilised life. But we are not alone - we suffer a constant stream of unwanted visitors. Our houses, our food, our belongings, our very existence are under constant attack from a host of invaders eager to take advantage of our shelter, our food stores and our tasty soft furnishings. From bats in the belfry to beetles in the cellar, moths in the wardrobe and mosquitoes in the bedroom, humans cannot escape the attentions of the animal kingdom. Nature may be red in tooth and claw, but when it's our blood the bedbugs are after, when it's our cereal bowl that's littered with mouse droppings, and when it's our favourite chair that collapses due to woodworm in the legs, it really brings it home the fact that we and our homes are part of nature too. This book represents a 21st century version of the classic Mediaeval bestiary. It poses questions such as where these animals came from, can we live with them, can we...

Reviews

It is really an remarkable ebook that we actually have ever read through. I actually have study and i also am confident that i am going to gonna study once more yet again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Ewell Rempel

The very best book i at any time read. It generally does not price an excessive amount of. I discovered this publication from my dad and i recommended this book to understand.
