Night brought heavy rain, and apparently a complete break up of the weather. From Hereford new combinations were formed for the homeward journey, which may be noted on another day. The Welsh section of the tour was immensely enjoyed by both members, and they would recommend a similar route to anyone in search of good air and scenery and satisfied with moderate distances. Lieut. CHANGES OF ADDRESS. J. W. Wilson s address is now Wyddrington, Birmingham. Walter S. Meyer s address is at present 124, Wood Street, E.C., and he now resides in the W. District. ECHOES. I hope our Northern members will turn up well at Ewell. They should not forget that out of the five General Meets they have four north of the Thames. The Southern men were willing to forego the pleasure of seeing the Northern men in Southern territory, and offered to meet them at Teddington, and it was only the bad taste of the innkeepers in that place and the neighbourhood that prevented this happy arrangement being completed. No doubt the roads are vile as far as Kingston, but all the more Kvsos to those who are not deterred by the evils of macadam from attending, and at the Harrow Meet they will have the comfortable feeling that they have the good roads and the S.W. and S.E. the macadam. - A few of our flyers, not content with their exertions in...
