As a young child, Goff injured his eye when he was playing with his father s rifle and the gun went off. Goff s dad rushed him to the hospital, which is how Goff imagines God responding to human failures. Goff befriended a corner store owner. Goff often bought candy at the store and the owner would sometimes allow him to take the candy even when he did not have enough money. This helped Goff realize that sometimes people can make their own rules. When Goff was in elementary school, he joined a Little League baseball team. The team made it to the playoffs, but lost. Goff, however, hit a home run. His coach sent him a card that told him he was a real baseball player. PLEASE NOTE: This is a summary and analysis of the book and NOT the original book.
