Paperback. Condition: New. 194 pages. Natural Self Esteem - Overcome Low Self Esteem For Good A robust and healthy self-esteem is the bedrock of our whole personality. No other quality affects as many aspects of our life and determines our success in a such a broad variety of areas. Accordingly, low self-esteem inhibits us tremendously. It blocks the road to a happy and fulfilling life. But what is quite often neglected by psychotherapists or in self-help books is the actual experience of low self-esteem, which is, irrespective of the consequences it entails, burdensome and devastating in itself. Natural Self Esteem will not only provide practices and exercises to reclaim your true self-worth, the innate worth of your Natural Self, but help you to moderate the actual low self-esteem experience. By attacking the enemy, your low self-esteem, from various sides, Natural Self Esteem is probably the fastest and at the same time profoundest approach to overcome low self-esteem. Benefit from this new, integrative approach to cure low self-esteem Integrative: The various modules in this book are interrelated and reinforce each other. In this way you can benefit from the so-called synergy-effect: the modules function together and produce results that are otherwise not obtainable. Thus, the speed, potency, and effectiveness of change is increased. Comprehensive: Other than most books about self-esteem, this book does not limit itself to working with thoughts and beliefs but also includes the insights of depth psychology. The re-integration of suppressed qualities is of the essence if a stable and robust self-esteem is to be achieved. Additionally, supporting and accelerating modules include exercises and practices from various areas, such as mindfulness, compassion, releasing emotions, or goals in service of self-esteem. Change-inducing: This book is especially designed to expedite the change process. A whole module addresses change itself by assembling...
