

What Writing Does and How It Does It: An Introduction to Analyzing Texts and Textual Practices

By Charles Bazerman

Routledge. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 376 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. In What Writing Does and How It Does It, editors Charles Bazerman and Paul Prior offer a sophisticated introduction to methods for understanding, studying, and analyzing texts and writing practices. This volume addresses a variety of approaches to analyzing texts, and considers the processes of writing, exploring textual practices and their contexts, and examining what texts do and how texts mean rather than what they mean. Included are traditional modes of analysis (rhetorical, literary, linguistic), as well as newer modes, such as text and talk, genre and activity analysis, and intertextual analysis. The chapters have been developed to provide answers to a specified set of questions, with each one offering: a preview of the chapters content and purpose; an introduction to basic concepts, referring to key theoretical and research studies in the area; details on the types of data and questions for which the analysis is best used; examples from a wide-ranging group of texts, including educational materials, student writing, published literature, and online and electronic media; one or more applied analyses, with a clear statement of procedures for analysis and illustrations of a particular sample of data; and...
