

Taking Sides: Reservation Quotas and Minority Rights in India

By Rudolf C. Heredia

Penguin Books India Pvt Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Taking Sides: Reservation Quotas and Minority Rights in India, Rudolf C. Heredia, One of the biggest challenges facing India today is the question of reservation for the nations minority communities. Although the Constitution of India affirms equal justice for all, the manner in which legislatures and courts operate often compromise these rights in the name of political pragmatism. As a result, the voiceless and vulnerable members of society Dalits, tribals, women and religious minorities continue to be excluded and marginalized. Taking Sides outlines a credible roadmap to aid the quest for an inclusive and just society. Examining this churning debate from several points of view, Rudolf Heredia makes a persuasive argument for justice premised on liberty, tempered by equality and moderated by fraternity a justice beyond politics.
