Word Alive Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Gilmar eats, sleeps, and breathes basketball, so when the big game against Maple Honey Public School is announced, he dedicates hours to practicing for it. Then something horrible happens that causes him to question his love for the game. Read along as the kids at Green Leaf Public School help reignite Gilmar's love for basketball and show him what true friendship is all about. About the Author As a child, Hannah loved being read to, but was not a fan of reading on her own. One day, Hannah's father read her a story about a little polar bear which sparked her love for them. Fast forward to 15 years later and Betty the Polar Bear was born. Hannah is delighted to share this unique series with you that addresses real-life situations that children go through. She guarantees you will fall in love with each of the characters and will want to read these stories over and over again.
