Not illustrated. 1889 Excerpt: . . . of our population, constituting Glasgow as we understand it, were under one sanitary authority we might entrust to our Medical Officer of Health the drawing up of a memorandum for the guidance of all schools, whether proprietary or not; and the fact that the Officer of Health had legal power to give effect to his recommendations, would give a sense of authority likely to be respected. As this state of matters has not yet come within sight, it occurred to me after turning over several plans in my mind, that this society might appoint a small committee, nominated by, and including, our President, or by his Council, with instructions to invite a representative from the Glasgow and the Govan Schoo. , Boards, and from other educational bodies such as the Educational Institute and the Teachers Guild. In this way a committee well acquainted with the difficulties...
