Now one has grown to manhood, My blue-eyed Baby Boy, He was and is a solace, A treasure and a joy! The other little Darling Left me one autumn day, And oft when shadows deepen I brush a tear away. My heart was heavy laden, How could I rise above The longing and the wanting - The only way was Love! I d love - I d work for children Who re in the world to-day, Perhaps they d like some verses To while an hour away! I d think of them as gardeners, The rhymes as growing flowers, And rippling peals of laughter As happy summer showers! T is thus, my little Darlings, These rhymes were sown for you Within your Nursery-gardens Will you plant my poems, too?
