Evaluation Research in Child Welfare: Improving Outcomes Through University-Public Agency Partnerships (Hardback)

By Katharine Briar-Lawson, Joan Levy Zlotnik

Taylor Francis Inc, United States, 2003. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Since the 1980s, child welfare agencies and social work programs in more than 40 states have come together to address recruitment and retention issues by preparing social work students for child welfare practice--and to enhance the delivery of child welfare services. This book documents the outcomes of these partnerships to help you assess their value and sustainability! Evaluation Research in Child Welfare: Improving Outcomes Through University-Public Agency Partnerships is a critical examination of the diverse outcomes--and strategies for assessing them--of university/public child welfare agency partnerships designed to prepare social work students for public child welfare practice. This informative book addresses outcomes of these specialized training efforts which were supported by federal Title IV-E and Title IV-B Section 426 funds. Special attention is paid to programs addressing diversity and cultural competence through staff development. The book follows the process of tracking the career paths of students in several states (large and small, rural and urban), as well as cross-state collaborations that include university, agency, consumer, and student partnerships. From the Editors: Rising drug problems such as crack and cocaine addiction, along with co-occurring challenges such as...
