OUR COUNTRYS EVILS AND THEIR REMEDY

Applewood Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 62 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Dear Sir, In such a government as ours, public sentiment is the real sovereign. Its sway is unlimited and all-powerful. Our character and our well-being, as a people, alike depend upon it. It is therefore at all times important, that each one, in his sphere, contribute his utmost to render public sentiment what it ought to be. But there are particular junctures when this individual effort is specially called for. The present is such a crisis. Every thing about us constrains us to deep and serious thought. And if ever it was our duty, in a kindly and peaceful spirit, to speak out our thoughts frankly and firmly, it is now. Our country demands this. All her most precious interests are at stake. Never was a right public sentiment so important as at the present moment: and as every one, however humble his influence, can contribute something towards it, so let none supinely or timidly shrink back from this duty. He cannot escape the responsibility. His country, the other nations of the earth, - who have so deep interest in our great experiment of free institutions, the God of nations will all hold him to a strict account in this matter, for what he does, and for what he does not.
