World Scientific Publishing Company. Hardcover. Condition: New. 300 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.3in. x 0.8in. Contemporary Chinese rural life is placed in the sharpest theoretical and practical focus in this book. State-of-the-art techniques and perspectives are combined to take the reader into Xiaocun, a small village on the east bank of the Dianchi Lake in Kunming City its water, land and housing. In 2003, the author published the book Crime and Punishment: The Story of Xiaocun (1931 1997), which dealt with disputes, mediation and punishment in the legal anthropology tradition of Xiaocun. At that time, neither the villagers nor the author foresaw the vast changes that were to follow a few years later. Their main economic activity then was growing vegetables and flowers; urbanisation was tsunami-like in its speed and impact. Land requisition for urban development was so swift that five years later, in 2008, there was no farmland left. Instead, there were many landmark real estate and development projects. Xiaocun has become the centre of an enlarged Kunming City. Observers, including the Xiaocun residents, are unavoidably shocked at the changes to the physical landscape that follow rapid urbanisation. This book, Topography of Politics in Rural China: The Story of Xiaocun, reflects the authors revisits to the village starting in early 2007. In the past few years of research on this village, the author deeply felt that the problems that make people crazy and passionate are fully exposed through issues surrounding land and housing. From the perspective of topography, a land-focused point of view, the author will tell you the story of Xiaocun in this new century, exploring the peasantry and its relations to the state in more fundamental terms. Readership: Undergraduates, graduates, academics and researchers who are interested in urbanization and related issues in rural China. This item ships...
